Kaufman, Ida

Discharge on file at Santa Rosa Oct. 29-45

Ida Kaufman Apr 10 44

In a letter recently received by friends from Mrs. Ida Kaufman, she tells about "boot training" at Ft. Des Moines, Iowa. Mrs. Kaufman left Petaluma early in March to join the WACS. She told that they were to have Easter services in the theater because the two post chapels are not large enough. At the time Mrs. Kaufman wrote she had two more weeks training at Ft. Des Moines.

One night, Mrs. Kaufman said she had expected to be on guard duty but because of a blizzard the commander said that no one was to walk guard.

Mrs. Kaufman is the mother of Mrs. Leonard Fautley, who is now living at Sausalito.

Ida Kaufman Sept 12-44.

Ida Kaufman, who left here some time ago to join the WACs arrived here last week from Camp Carson, Colorado, and is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur L. Fautley. She secured a furlough to visit her daughter, Mrs. Leonard Fautley, who has been very ill at the University of California hospital, San Francisco, following the birth of a still born child. The young woman however, is improving, and expects to return home this week. Mrs. Fautley, the former Tamara Kaufman, is one of this city's most loved young girls.

Ida Kaufman Nov 13-44

Pvt. Ida Kaufman, WAC, formerly of Petaluma, and now assigned to the WAC headquarter detachment at Camp Carson, Colo., was recently promoted to the rank of private first class. She was sworn into the WACs on March 4, of this year, through the ninth service command at San Francisco and took her basic training at Ft. Des Moines, Iowa, and was transferred to Camp Carson during the same month. At Camp Carson PFC Kaufman has been assigned to the quartermaster branch. Before joining the WACc she was a teacher in Europe and the owner of a hotel in Switzerland. She was also a poultry farmer in Petaluma.

Ida Kaufmann Sept 4-45

After 18 months in the service of her country as a WAC, Pfc Ida Kaufmann has been discharged and is at present residing with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Fautley, 500 Seventh street. From the receiving and training center at Des Moines, Iowa, Mrs. Kaufmann was sent to Camp Crowder for assignment and from there she was sent to Camp Carson, Colorado, where she remained until a couple of weeks ago when she came to Camp Beale, Calif., for her discharge. For the present she has no plans other than to become reaccustomed to civilian activities and enjoy everything that goes to make up a GI-free life.

* * *